Second Sunday after Epiphany

The Epistle of St. Paul to the Romans, xii. 6-16. Brethren: We have different gifts, according to the grace that is given us: either prophecy, to be used according to the rule of faith, or ministry, in ministering, ...

What lesson does the Apostle give us in this epistle?

That we should hate that which is evil, and love that which is good; that we should love one another, and practice works of mercy; that we should be solicitous and fervent, as in the service of God. We should cooperate with the grace of God, and pray fervently.

The Holy Gospel of Jesus Christ, According to St. John, ii. 1-11. At that time there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee: and the mother of Jesus was there. And Jesus also was invited, and his disciples, to the marriage. ...

MONTH OF THE MOST HOLY NAME OF JESUS

In this time of Christmastide that this year is shortened to the 27th of the month because of the early Time of Septuagesima that begins on Sunday, January 28th. Normally it would last up to the Purification of Mary in the Time after Epiphany. Nevertheless in January we reflect on the Most Holy Name of Jesus as well as the Holy Family and later on Church Unity Octave between the feast of St. Peter's Chair and the Conversion of St. Paul. Let us then offer our Rosaries and daily sacrifices, crosses and submission to God's holy Will to relish this joyous time for soon we will be preparing for Lent in early February. Call upon the Blessed Mother of God to guard and guide us through this time of transition when the Joyful Mysteries are front and center from the Nativity of Our Lord to the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary when the official time of Christmastide ends. Let us ask Mary to bring us safely to her divine Son, before His altar where we can receive Him Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity that we may grow in sanctifying grace to help us better focus on our mission as members of the Church Militant to apply our prayers, penances, sacrifices and self-mortifications for the conversion of those who are chained to the Novus Ordo, that they will realize the true Bread of Life is only confectioned in the Traditional Latin Mass, and let us continue to pray daily the Leonine Prayer said at the end of every Latin Low Mass.

Q. 1125. Is it enough to belong to God's Church in order to be saved?

A. It is not enough to belong to the Church in order to be saved, but we must also keep the Commandments of God and of the Church.

Q. 1098. Is there any other means of obtaining God's grace than the Sacraments?

A. There is another means of obtaining God's grace, and it is prayer.
