Passion Sunday

The Epistle of St. Paul to the Hebrews, ix. 11-15.

Brethren: Christ, being come an high priest of the good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle not made with hand, that is, not of this creation: neither by the blood of goats, or of calves, but by His own blood, entered once into the holies, having obtained eternal redemption. ...

Explanation.

St. Paul here teaches that Jesus Christ has given full satisfaction for the sins of men, and opened to all the entrance into the sanctuary. The Church proposes this epistle to us in order that we may thank God for the great mercy of the redemption, love and praise

Him, and be encouraged to share in His sufferings by fasting, prayer, and penitential works.

The Holy Gospel of Jesus Christ, According to St. John, 8: 46-59. At that time Jesus said to the multitudes of the Jews: Which of you shall convict Me of sin? If I say the truth to you, why do you not believe Me? He that is of God, heareth the words of God. ...

From A Homily by St. Gregory the Pope

Homilia 18 in Evangelia

Let each of you, therefore, think within himself whether this voice of God sounds loudly in the ear of his heart; for thereby will he know whether he is of God. Some there are, whom it pleaseth not to hear the commandments of God, even with their bodily ears. And some there are, who receive those words with their bodily ears, but whose heart is far from them. And some also there are, who hear the words of God with joy, so that they are moved thereby even to tears. But when their fit of weeping is past they turn again to iniquity. They who despise to do the words of God certainly cannot be said to hear them. Wherefore, dearly beloved brethren, call up your own life before your mind's eye, and then ponder with trembling those awful words which the mouth of the Truth spoke: Ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God

Easter Duty: Holy Mother Church commands us to make a good confession and worthily receive Holy Communion during the appointed time. In the United States, this time extends from the First Sunday of Lent to Trinity Sunday.
